WHAT CAUSES COLDS?

This question is asked every day. A cold is really a fever, not always caused by the weather but often due to e sordered blood or lack of important food-elements. In changing seasons fat-foods are essential because they distribute heat by enriching the blood and so render the system better able to withstand the varying elements. This is the important reason why Scott's Emulsion should always be taken for colds, and it does morebuilds strength to prevent sickness.

Scott's Emulsion contains Nature's rare strength building fats, so skillfully blended that the blood profits from every drop. It is free from harmful drugs or alcohol. Sold at drug stores -always get the genuine.

"BUGS" BAER DEBUTS IN NEW YORK

As Rabid Rudolph might say: "Bugs Baer has broken into the big league, but he's gotta get used to it before he likes it." This is just a way of breaking the news to Washingtonians that "Bugs" Baer, for several years the maker of merry guips and caftoons on the sport pages of The Times, has been lured away by the white lights of Broadwaz and Park Row.

Yep, "Hugs" has shaken the town, He has signed a contract with that metropolitan daily, the New York Wor and his nimble and fun-making pen will scamper hereafter over the sport pages of the evening editions of that newspaper. Having signed up with New York.

the odds are 10 to 1 in Washington that waivers will never be asked on "Bugs" Baer, and he'll become an institution in Gotham-just like Gramt's Tomb, Christy Mathewson, and the Bowery.

Now that the worst has been told to the Washington admirers of "Bugs," and it is fully realized that he's gone from here, we'll let you

The sayings and drawings of "Bugs" Baer are to continue to appear in The Times.

You see, when that New York newspaper decided that it must add "Rugs" and Rabid Rudolph to Ps staff, the editor didn't know how loyal was "Bugs" to Washington. Loyal To Washington.

"Signs here," said the editor, shoving a contract right on top of our artist's sketch pad. "Bugs" glanced hurriedly over the "whereases" and such legal phrases as "party of the first part, took a more careful look at the dollar-mark part of the contract, and then observed: Mister, Rabid Eudolph and my-

And so it was agreed. "Bugs" is in New York, but his writings and drawings will appear every day in The Times, and he has promised to run over occasionally and get new dope on local conditions.

The thousands of Washington followers of "Bugs" Baer will join The Times in wishing him the full measure of success in New York journalism. Although there's a "to let" tag on his desk down at The Times office, the fellows he has labored with for several years are unselfish enough to appreciate the fact that he has been called to a broader field, and, although "Bugs" will be missed here, he was destined to go sooner or Arthur Baer-he's been called Arthur Baer probably a half dozen times in his life tonce when a stern parent reprimanded him), made his metropolitan debut in the Evening World yesterday. The column is headed by "Bugs,' and not Arthur, however.

There's also a personally-conducted column in the Evening World, so Mr. Baer is fairly launched upon his big league career. His witty "stuff" is to be syndicated by the Press Publishing Company, but in Washington it is ordained that "Bugs" shall write exclusively for The Times and he will keep up his column as heretofore.

he was nothing but a boy with the ambition to be a cartoonist. He's hardly more than a boy now, but he's batting more than 300 in the cartoonists' league. From the outset his cartoons and comic sayings in The Times made a hit and Washington soon talked of the "find" made by The Times.

However, there are more baseball teams, more "nuts," more folks and more foolishness in New York and it was natural that "Bugs" should branc hout into the metropolitan game. Here's to your success and your
